Working for a better future for all

Democratic Women of Greenville County is an active, diverse group of women and men. Our objectives are:

- To support the principles of the Democratic Party,
- To initiate and carry out programs and projects on behalf of the Democratic Party and the Democratic Party's candidates, and
- To promote Democratic women to become actively involved, to serve in leadership positions in the county, state, and national Democratic party, and to serve as candidates for elective office.
